CELEBRATION OF THEIR THIRTEENTH SHOP TALK AT M'CRUM-HOWELL PLANT. SILVER WEDDING

Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Simms of Gorployes on The Grand Trunk, the Was Pastor Here.

The thirteenth in his series of shop The attractive rooms of the First talks at the McCrum-Howell company's plant was given on Wednesday noon by Rev. C. H. Ricketts, was spoke on The Grand Trunk, meaning parish parsonage at Gorham, Me., were thronged Wednesday evening. Janu-ary 31, when Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Simms, in celebration of the 25th andiversary of their marriage, enterby that term that straight pathway to success which men can reach only as by that term that straight pathway to success which men can reach only as some great passion possesses them. When to any man life means purpose that is worthy of the very best he can put into it, he will then put forth a supreme effort to attain it. Every man is called upon to make a supreme choice in life, and carrying that choice out is his life mission. If there is one thing in life more than another that a boy wants to do, and seems to have special adaptability for doing it, and if that one thing takes possession of thing in life more than another that a boy wants to do, and seems to have special adaptability for doing it, and if that one thing takes possession of him by day and he dreams about it at night, in all probability that is the boy's life work. If that is so, then sacrifice and struggle, failures and re-verses will only be sterningstones to daughter wearing a becoming frock o muslin. At the tables in the dining room less were served by Miss Elsiv Salthouse and Miss Eva Graves, assisted by a number of the young girl of the parish, all prettily gowned verses will only be steppingstones to his final success.
